2020 SALES PROSPECTUS

LETTER FROM THE ORGANISERS

Welcome to the 2020 edition of the TOPS at SPAR Wine Show!

The most exciting news for 2019 was that South Africa's favourite wine event not only attracted an overwhelming number of new exhibitors to the show but along with them, record-breaking attendances in all four of South Africa's major metros.

We're obviously thrilled at this achievement, which is without doubt the cumulative result of an all-star team effort, driven by innovative, mutually beneficial industry partnerships, a talented group of full-time staff and freelance crew, and of course our exhibitors, many of whom return year after year, and who work hard to provide an unparalleled experience for our consumers.

And needless to say, the significant support from our title partner TOPS at SPAR powers the entire Wine Show engine. We are delighted to share with you that TOPS at SPAR has extended its investment in the show for a further three years until 2022.

We are excited to expand and enhance valuable content partnerships with a variety of stakeholders, including the Old Vine Project, South African Wine Tasting Championships, #SAWineShowcase, Proudly South African and Platters Wine Guide. Our core aim is always to provide a platform for important industry initiatives to reach a consumer audience, and we will be announcing additions to the 2020 program in due course.

One of our most exciting additions for 2019 was the introduction of an elegant yet unpretentious five-course food and wine pairing. It is our ongoing aim to educate South African wine consumers in fun and exciting ways to enjoy and appreciate wine. The food-wine pairing was enthusiastically received, and we look forward to developing the experience further for a broader audience in 2020 with the South African Sommeliers Association (SASA), the SPAR Group and the Olive Brook range.

We remain committed to uplifting the South African wine industry by actively promoting a transformative agenda. A special acknowledgement to the Department of Trade and Industry and Wine Transformation Unit for their ongoing support in this regard.

See you in WINEderland!
